Tele-Port

Tele-Port is a dynamic jazz quartet that unites leading figures from Luxembourg's jazz scene – bassist Pol Belardi, keyboardist Jérôme Klein, and drummer Jeff Herr – with the adventurous Russian saxophonist Zhenya Strigalev, a mainstay of the London jazz scene for over a decade. Their collaboration results in a modern take on jazz, blending European traditions, American jazz heritage, and Eastern influences into a unique and energetic sound. Their latest album, «Please Disperse», was created during an artistic residency at Opderschmelz in Dudelange, Luxembourg, and released by Double Moon/Challenge Records in May 2023. The album showcases their diverse influences and compositional strengths, featuring tracks that range from hypnotic minimalism to groove-driven chants and fully improvised energetic pieces. Each member contributes to the compositions, ensuring a rich tapestry of sounds and styles. Tele-Port has performed at various international festivals and venues, including the Budapest Music Center, Gaume Jazz Festival, London Jazz Festival, Edinburgh Jazz Festival, Like a Jazz Machine Festival, Jazz im Brunnenhof, Völklinger Hüttenjazz, D'Jazz à Dijon, Sunset/Sunside Paris, Jazz au Chesnay, Ennert dem Waasserturm, Jazz Station Bruxelles, Jammin'Juan, Shuffle Jazz Festival, the Sirens Call festival, Unterfahrt in Munich, Jazz North East Newcastle, the JFC Jazz Club and DOM 7 Jazz Club in St. Petersburg, as well as the Kozlov Club and Butman Club in Moscow. Their music is a blend of rapid fusion power, free improvisation, and fine grooves, creating an exciting and unique mix of styles that transport listeners to new sonic landscapes. The band's name, Tele-Port, reflects their mission to transport audiences through their music, offering an unmatched and colourful live experience.
